

Acomod8 is a pre-seed startup founded by three University of Ghana students to help solve the accommodation crisis on University campuses in Ghana. Acomod8 is a platform that connects landlords and students seeking off-campus housing. The platform will save students time searching for off-campus housing, and money on agent fees, and give students the peace of mind they deserve so they can focus on what matters most: their academics. Michael Awuah Koranteng Charles Kwame Aboagye Gabriel Agbobli